

White Plains developer wins prestigious housing awards

11.23.10

Summerview Square, a 63-unit townhouse rental community in Norwalk, Conn., has been named 2010 Community of the Year by the Home Builders Association of Connecticut.

So what does this have to do with White Plains?

The owner of the property — Seavest Inc.'s Summerview Square — is based right here on Westchester Avenue.

The community also won Best Rental Community and Best Rental Unit.

“Being recognized as the top residential community in the State of Connecticut by fellow home building professionals is truly an honor that reflects the supreme collaboration of the developers, builders, the City of Norwalk and the neighborhood association that has supported Summerview Square from the beginning,” says Andrew J. LaSala, Jr., partner of Summerview Development Group.

Tags: home builders association, housing, seavest, summerview square

Posted by: Diana Costello

Posted in Uncategorized with No Comments →

 Print This Post |  Email This Post